

Links to additional Bighorn National Forest maps –

The University of Wyoming Libraries Digital Repository has several Bighorn National Forest maps that are too large to post on this website so this document will provide links for those wishing to download those maps.

Interested parties can search this repository starting at <https://uwdigital.uwyo.edu/>

A 1917 map in TIFF format is available at <https://uwdigital.uwyo.edu/islandora/object/wyu%3A120841>

Other versions are also available. One method of accessing them is to open the hyperlink in the preceding paragraph, then scroll down to the “Topics” field. Click the hyperlink there that reads “Bighorn National Forest (Wyo.) – Maps.” and the site will present eight different maps.

One source for free historic USGS quad maps is the USGS Historical Topographic Map Explorer which appears to be a partnership between ESRI and USGS and is located at <http://historicalmaps.arcgis.com/usgs/>
